You are warmly welcome to Helsinki! We are so excited that the International Youth Fire Fighters Camp is taking place in Helsinki. Taking part in youth fire brigade activities is a great hobby. Now that the restrictions have finally eased and face-to-face encounters are once again possible, the City of Helsinki is excited to contribute to the realisation of young people's recreational activities on such a large scale. We believe that Malmi Airport provides a good setting for camp activities.

If you have any spare time, we warmly recommend exploring the City of Helsinki and its rich cultural life. We sincerely hope that you will enjoy your stay.

Equality is one of the most important values at the camp.

Everyone has the right to attend the camp, participate to activities organized there and to be heard and seen as themselves without a fear of discrimination.

We have made instructions for preventing bullying and sexual harassment and how to handle situations where bullying or harassment has happened. There are also principles of safer space and instructions for good manners at the camp. Every camper should commit to these.

The goal of this Forms-training is to get to know these instructions before the camp and to discuss about them with young fire fighters. Everyone should know what bullying and harassment can look like and how we can help others and ourselves in these situations. Link:

At training we will use Secapp when we alarm units, for more alarm details and for location. This is something that has never been experienced before at camps.
